Easter Art Workshop

Our second virtual art workshop took place this month to celebrate Easter and was another great success!

Shoshana, our talented art teacher, led the Easter session where members decorated wooden boxes, designed Easter bunny cards and enjoyed adding sparkle to wooden bunnies.

On the 6th April we will be running a Spring themed Art session on zoom from 10-11am, please put this date in your diary.

Shoshana will deliver materials to members before the workshop so everyone has everything they needed in advance. There will be a £5 fee for the workshop which can either be transferred to our bank account (account name: Hertsmere Mencap, sort code: 40-52-40, account no: 00032857) or given to Shoshana when she delivers the materials

Jubilee Club

The return of the Jubilee Club has been a highlight for our members who enjoy getting together for a lively and fun Jubilee club catch up.

The most recent get together coincided with celebrating Red Nose Day! Everyone came along wearing red noses and shared lots of super, funny jokes.

The next (zoom) Jubilee Club will be on Wednesday 31st March at 7.00pm. Alyson will be performing magic, followed by our usual laughter and story sharing. Looking forward to seeing you all there.

Coffee Morning

We had a special, guest visitor at our Wednesday coffee morning, Henry Holland-Hibbert. Henry is Hertfordshire's High Sheriff; the High Sheriff is appointed by the Queen to represent her in the County of Hertfordshire in matters relating to law and order. Our members enjoyed hearing all about Henry's life as a High Sheriff and Henry spoke about the importance of communication during lockdown to avoid feeling isolated and lonely. Henry was enthralled, listening to our members sharing stories about their lives.

Our coffee morning runs every Wednesday at 10-10.45am on zoom.
